

Article 63
(Education - PB/4)

(1) Temporary residence permit may be issued to an alien for the purpose of receiving primary, secondary or higher education, as well as education on the level of learning a foreign language at the institutions authorised to pursue such an activity in Bosnia and Herzegovina for the purpose of preparation for enrolment in full time education, as well as for the purpose of professional specialisations, and professional training after acquiring a higher education diploma, with the aim of taking a state licence exam.

(2) In addition to the application for the approval or extension of temporary residence, and the evidence of meeting the general requirements for the approval of temporary residence referred to in Article 53 of the Law and Article 58 of this Bylaw, an alien shall submit:

- a) a certificate of enrolment into an educational institution for the current school/academic year, and in addition to the application for the extension of temporary residence, also a certificate of successfully passed examinations for the previous school year,
- b) evidence on payment of tuition fees or other costs related to the educational or some other institution in Bosnia and Herzegovina,
- c) evidence on secured means to support oneself during the school or academic year in the amount of 800,00 KM per month or a guarantee of a citizen of Bosnia and Herzegovina, of an alien with a temporary or permanent residence permit in Bosnia and Herzegovina, which proves the support for the duration of intended stay with evidence on a steady income source or other sources of financing.

(3) If the application for the approval/extension of temporary residence permit on the basis of education relates to a minor alien, the application shall be submitted by one of the parents or a legal guardian of a minor alien.

(4) In addition to evidence set out in paragraph (2) of this Article, in order to grant a temporary residence permit to a minor on this basis, a written consent of both parents or a legal guardian shall be submitted, stating that the minor is to receive education in Bosnia and Herzegovina and the consent of both parents or a legal guardian for a minor alien to be placed in boarding school or in the home of a citizen of Bosnia and Herzegovina or in the home of an alien with a permanent residence permit in Bosnia and Herzegovina, who will defray the costs of accommodation, medical costs, costs of supporting and all other costs that may incur from the alien's stay in Bosnia and Herzegovina, as well as all costs resulting from the alien leaving Bosnia and Herzegovina.

(5) Temporary residence shall be granted for the period of one school or academic year, up to a maximum of one year, provided that the validity of the alien's passport exceeds the period of temporary stay by three months.

(6) Temporary residence permit on this basis may be extended up to a maximum of two years following the elapse of the period stipulated for full time education, and upon submission of evidence on registration for the year of study.

(7) Temporary residence permit on this basis may be issued to an alien arriving for the purpose of professional specialization in Bosnia and Herzegovina, if that specialization does not exceed the period of three months in total.

(8) In addition to the application for the approval or extension of temporary residence permit, and apart from the evidence of meeting the general requirements for the approval of temporary residence referred to in Article 53 of the Law and 58 of this Bylaw, an alien shall submit:

- a) a document indicating that the alien is sent to Bosnia and Herzegovina to receive professional specialization,
- b) a document indicating that the alien is accepted for professional specialization in Bosnia and Herzegovina,
- c) evidence of payment of costs for the purpose of professional specialization.

(9) Temporary residence permit on this basis may be granted to an alien arriving for the purpose of professional training after acquiring a higher education diploma in Bosnia and Herzegovina, with the aim of taking a state licence exam, if that professional training does not exceed the period of six months per year in total.

(10) In addition to the application for the approval of temporary residence permit referred from paragraph (9) of this Article, and apart from the evidence of meeting the general requirements for the approval of temporary residence referred to in Article 53 of the Law and 49 of this Bylaw, an alien shall submit a document which proves that the alien attends professional training in an authorized institution in Bosnia and Herzegovina, with a note of the period of training duration and jobs which the alien performs.
