

Article 91
(Residence for other justified reasons - PB/11)

(1) Temporary residence on the basis of other justified reasons may be granted to an alien if he/she is a member of the immediate family of an alien who enjoys the privileges and immunity on the grounds of international law, and he/she him/herself does not enjoy the same privileges and immunity, as well as other justified reasons.

(2) In addition to the application for the approval or extension of temporary residence permit referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article, and apart from the evidence of meeting the general requirements for the approval of temporary residence referred to in Article 53 of the Law and 58 of this Bylaw, an alien shall submit:

- a) evidence that the alien with whom the family reunification is sought enjoys the privileges and immunity according to international law or evidence on other justifiable reason which will be assessed case by case,
- b) evidence that the alien is a member of the immediate family of the alien with whom the family reunification is sought,
- c) a statement verified by a municipal administrative authority or a notary through which the citizen of Bosnia and Herzegovina or the alien with whom family reunification is sought obliges oneself to defray the costs of accommodation, medical costs, ensure the support and defray all the other costs which may incur as a result of the alien's stay in Bosnia and Herzegovina, as well as the cost of placing under supervision, voluntary leave of the country or forced removal, and all other costs that result from an alien leaving Bosnia and Herzegovina.

(3) The organizational unit of the Service which runs the procedure is obliged ex officio to obtain evidence issued by the competent body or the MFA that the alien with whom the family reunification is sought enjoys the privileges and immunity, and consent of the MFA that the provisions of the Law be applied on the members of the family of the person enjoying the privileges and immunity.

(4) During the procedural processing of the application for the approval or extension of temporary residence permit on the basis of other justified reasons, the organizational unit of the Service is obliged to obtain an opinion from the seat of the Service before rendering of the decision.

(5) Temporary residence is granted for the period within which the alien who is being reunited with the family enjoys the privileges and immunity in Bosnia and Herzegovina, or until other justified reasons for residence exist, and for the maximum period of one year, provided that the validity of the alien's passport exceeds the period of temporary stay by three months.
